MOTW round 1: Györi Audi ETO KC vs Team Esbjerg

#MOTW

GYÖRI AUDI ETO KC (HUN) vs TEAM ESBJERG (DEN)

Group B, round 1 | Saturday 7 September 2024, 18:00 CEST

Playing hall:

Audi Arena Győr
Toth László utca
9027 Győr, Hungary

Capacity: 5,500

Key facts:

- The first MOTW of the EHF Champions League Women 2024/25 is a rematch of last season's semi-final, when Györi Audi ETO KC defeated Team Esbjerg 24:23.
- That result marked the seventh win for Győr in seven matches against the Danish side – including three at the EHF FINAL4 in Budapest.
- The defending champions have played at each EHF FINAL4 since 2016; Esbjerg qualified for all three EHF FINAL4 events since 2022.
- One of Győr's newcomers this season is Kristine Breistøl, who arrived from Esbjerg; at the same time, Line Haugsted moved from Győr to Esbjerg.
- Győr are the only club with players from all three medal-winning nations at the Paris 2024 Olympics: Norway, France, and Denmark; in total, 17 players who won an Olympic medal in Paris are involved in this MOTW: seven with Győr, 10 with Esbjerg.
- Esbjerg's Nora Mørk won three of her six EHF Champions League trophies with Győr – in 2017, 2018 and 2019.
- Henny Reistad (with Vipers Kristiansand in 2021) and Line Haugsted (with Győr in 2024) are the only other EHF Champions League winners in Esbjerg's squad.
- Both teams are led by a Swedish head coach: Győr by Per Johansson, Esbjerg by Tomas Axnér, who took over from Jesper Jensen before the 2024/25 season.
- Axnér is also head coach of the Swedish women's national team; Johansson led the Netherlands since 2022 but stepped down from that role last week.
