- The group phase of the EHF Champions League Women resumes after a seven-week break with round 9, highlighted by the Match of the Week between Ikast Handbold and FTC-Rail Cargo Hungaria.

- FTC won the first duel with Ikast 37:36, which marked a turnaround in fortunes for both teams.

- Coming off their EHF European League triumph, Ikast started the CL season with five straight wins, followed by the defeat against FTC and two losses against fellow Danish side Team Esbjerg.

- Last season's runners-up FTC earned just one point from their first five matches before beating Ikast; they then defeated MKS Zagłębie Lubin twice.

- The result of the reverse fixture marked FTC's first win against Ikast in six matches; the Danish side won each of their first five encounters.

- Since club icon Gábor Elek stepped down, FTC have been led by Danish coaches: Martin Albertsen started the season, Allan Heine took over in October.

- At the EHF FINAL4 2023 in Budapest three weeks later, FTC lost the final to Vipers Kristiansand 28:24 in the Hungarian club's first ever appearance at the season-ending tournament in their hometown.

- FTC are playing in their 24th CL season and have finished runners-up twice; Ikast are in their 12th CL season and have two semi-finals as their best results.

- Ikast centre back Markéta Jeřábková was the top scorer of the 2023 IHF Women's World Championship with 63 goals; she steered Czechia to their first quarter-final appearance since 2017.

- The only non-Scandinavian player in the squad, Jeřábková arrived at Ikast last summer after winning the CL two times with Vipers.

- FTC have three players in their squad who won the CL with other clubs; combined they lifted the trophy seven times: Zsuzsanna Tomori (three titles with Györi Audi ETO KC and one with Vipers), Dragana Cvijic (two titles with WHC Budućnost BEMAX), and Andrea Lekic (one title with Györ).

- Andrea Lekic became the fourth female player in CL history to score 1,000 goals; now on 1,002 goals, she aims to surpass Anita Görbicz (1,016 goals).

- Six Ikast players won medals at the World Championship in December: Stine Skogrand and Ingvild Bakkerud both won silver with Norway; Sarah Aaberg Iversen, Simone Petersen, Emma Friis, and Julie Scaglione all won bronze with Denmark.

- FTC's most successful player at the WCh was Angela Malestein, who finished fifth with Netherlands.
