- This Match of the Week is crucial in the fight for second place in DELO EHF Champions League group A.
- Brest Bretagne Handball are ranked third with 17 points; Rostov-Don are second with 19 points.
- If Rostov get at least a draw, they will secure the second place and skip the play-offs, joining group A winners Team Esbjerg directly into the quarter-final.
- However, if Brest win, there might still be three teams that could end up in second place: Brest and Rostov, as well as FTC-Rail Cargo Hungaria, who will also finish on 19 points if they beat BV Borussia 09 Dortmund on Saturday.
- Rostov won the reverse fixture against Brest: 26:24.
- Brest have won all their CL home matches so far this season, but they have not beaten Rostov in seven previous duels: one draw, six defeats.
- Brest lost a CL home game for the last time on 18 October 2020 – against another Russian team, CSKA; since that 30:28 defeat, Brest won 11 of their 14 CL home games and had three draws.

- Brest are still unbeaten in 2022: four straight wins were followed by a draw at Esbjerg last weekend.
- Rostov have lost once in 2022 – against Esbjerg.
- Brest's top scorer last season, Ana Gros, moved to Russia in the off-season, joining Rostov rivals CSKA.
- Brest reached the DELO EHF FINAL4 for the first time in 2021 and advanced to the final; Rostov lost in the quarter-final to eventual champions Vipers Kristiansand.
- Rostov have played at the EHF FINAL4 twice: in 2018 and in 2019, when they reached the final.
- Six French Olympic champions are involved in this MOTW: Pauletta Foppa, Pauline Coatanea, Kalidiatou Niakite, and Coralie Lassource for Brest; Beatrice Edwige and Grace Zaadi for Rostov.
- Five Rostov players were part of the Russian team that won silver at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics.
- Helene Fauske is the best scorer for Brest in the CL with 66 goals; Grace Zaadi has netted 67 times for Rostov.
- Both coaches worked as national team coaches: Brest's Pablo Morel led Gabon; Rostov's Per Johansson steered Sweden to silver medal at the EHF EURO 2010 before coaching Montenegro between 2017 and 2020.
- Injury report: Brest – Djurdjina Jaukovic and Aïssatou Kouyaté (both knee injuries); Rostov – n/a.
